

At the beginning of the year we decided it would be a good idea to play a few team building games. One of year 4's favourites was the 'Marshmallow Tower'. Each group tried to build the highest tower out of spaghetti and marshmallows, without it collapsing. What a challenge!

